What is GaTAPP?

The Georgia Teacher Academy for Preparation and Pedagogy (GaTAPP) is an alternative route to teacher certification. It's a classroom-based preparation program designed for individuals who are qualified to teach at the elementary, middle, or high school level who have not completed a traditional teacher education program.

This program equips candidates with essential skills for classroom success and includes a supervised induction phase, with support as you work toward mastery in this profession.

How do I qualify for TAPP?

- Must have a bachelor's degree or higher from an accredited college/university.
- Prior to program entry, you'll need to have a passing score on the GACE Content Assessment in the area you will be teaching.
- Must pass the Georgia Educator Ethics Assessment (#360).
- Must have a job offer as the teacher of record in one of our regional schools. Our counties include Butts, Fayette, Griffin-Spalding, Henry, Lamar, Newton, Pike, and Thomaston-Upson.

Teaching Fields Offered
