The Digging to the Core consortium is a capacity-building project designed to support instructional leaders during Year Two Implementation of ELA CCGPS. Teacher Leaders, Instructional Coaches and Assistant Principals for Instruction will participate in a deeper study about the ramification of the ELA/Literacy paradigm shifts. Topics will focus on rich performance tasks, formative assessment principles, and research-based instruction.

Dates:
- September 17, 2013
- December 3, 2013
- March 18, 2014
- May 13, 2014

Time: 8:30am – 3:30 pm

Location: Griffin RESA

Cost: NONE*

*There is no cost for systems in the Griffin RESA region (Butts, Fayette, Henry, Lamar, Newton, Pike, Spalding, and Upson). There is a nominal cost of $25.00 per session for participants outside our region.

Target Audience: Literacy & Academic Coaches and Assistant Principals for Instruction

Register online: www.griffinresa.net

Registration Deadline: (for the 1st session): September 10, 2013