ENDORSEMENT DESCRIPTION

The Griffin RESA Teacher Leader Endorsement Program prepares classroom teachers to take the lead in their grade levels and/or departments to promote the success of all students. Teacher leaders play a critical role in supporting school improvement efforts and promoting a positive school culture grounded in shared goals and beliefs. For teachers committed to making their contribution to student success as classroom teachers and leaders of others, this three-course program results in confident, competent teacher leaders who possess the skills and dispositions to lead by example and make a positive contribution to their school's improvement efforts. The delivery model for this program is blended online, combining three ZOOM sessions over the course of the school year with online learning tasks and discussions. Candidates will also engage in an authentic field experience, applying program knowledge to their school setting.
