

Understanding the MTSS Framework

WHEN

October 24, 2024
8:30 am – 3:30 pm

Registration Deadline: October 17, 2024

CLASS DESCRIPTION

What happens when we begin serving students for academic, behavior, or social-emotional interventions? Educators will delve into the Multi-Tiered System of Supports (MTSS) framework, exploring tiers 1, 2, and 3, and how they can support students effectively. Increase your understanding of analyzing universal screening data and other relevant data sources. Learn to choose evidence-based interventions, and how to progress monitor with or without a computer-based program. Finally, through role-play, practice how to effectively participate in a Student Support Meeting using the data-based decision-making process. Participants will gain practical insights into implementing MTSS in their educational settings.
